

Forest Fire Near Truckee Sweeps Over Wide Area

100 Camp Beale Soldiers Join Fire Fighters, Blaze Controlled

A careless deer hunter was blamed by the U. S. Forest Service for a 140 acre timber fire which raged out of control for two days near the Sugadi camp, seven miles south and east of Truckee.

The fire, the largest and most stubborn in the Tahoe National Forest this season, took the combined efforts of more than 200 men and half a dozen caterpillars to bring it under control Tuesday night. It was in a rugged, thickly forested area.

The blaze started about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon and within minutes had spread over several acres, Ranger E. E. Boehm and Fire Control Officer William Curran rushed men and equipment to the scene and for a while had it whipped. A brisk wind Monday again sent it out of control and a 200-man camp was established with 100 Camp Beale soldiers augmenting crews from Truckee and surrounding districts. A few deer hunters volunteered aid but for the most part camps were broken quickly and the majority of the hunters in the area hurried home.

Two airplanes, piloted by Ace Hibbert of Auburn and Jack Bergin, circled the area over the fire to direct Curran and his crew on the ground.

Webber Lake Fire
A smaller fire off the Webber Lake Road in the Sierraville district was also blamed on hunters. This blaze was quickly controlled by hunters and forest service men who hurried to the scene.

LOCAL SCHOOL BUS UNSCATHED AFTER COLLISION NEARBY

A truck driven by Joseph Smith 28, for the Hooper Landscapers of Reno, and a car driven by Joseph L. Souza, 55, Sparks, collided beside a school bus loaded with children four miles west of Truckee Monday morning.

The bus, driven by H. A. Eaton, had stopped to take on three children and the signal lights were flashing. The truck driver claimed his brakes failed and in avoiding a collision with the bus, turned into the right hand lane. The car, traveling west, passed the bus and the two vehicles collided. No one was injured and the bus was not involved.

State Patrolman Roy Stallard made the investigation and cited both drivers.

Coke Makes Long Trip To Supply Truckee Market

The one business hardest hit by the collapse of the bridge over the Truckee River is the Truckee Coca-Cola Bottling Co., which operates a plant just south of the river.

Until such time as an alternate span is secured, it is necessary for products from the plant designed for Truckee to be hauled via Kings Beach and Tahoe City, a distance of nearly 37 miles, just to go a few hundred yards.

Regardless of the inconvenience, owner William Englehart says services will be continued as in the past.

Success Marks Opening Days Of Hunting Season

Robert Tonini Checks In For First Validation Of '51 Season

There were more deer hunters in this district on the opening day of the season last Saturday and more deer killed than for several past seasons.

Unofficial estimates by local officers placed the number of legal deer killed in the immediate area at more than 500 and some even suggested that twice that number were taken by the huge army of red-capped nimrods.

Early last week the shooters began to arrive and camps were established in every nook and corner of the region. The deer were more numerous and at lower elevations than on recent opening days and shots could be heard from all directions.

Despite the fact that thousands of hunters were scattered throughout the woods, not a single casualty was reported here during the first few days of the season.

The first deer validated here was brought in shortly after sunup by Robert Tonini, foreman for the Sierra Pacific Power Company in Truckee, who killed a forked horn in the Hobart Mills area. Constable N. F. Dolley made the validation.

From then on all officers were kept busy as the deer started pouring in. For the most part, they were small forked horns but occasionally a larger buck was tagged. These were mostly from the "back" country and high hills. The open area between Truckee and Hobart Mills and the Boca region were the most popular hunting grounds but the roads and trails between here and Sierraville were lined with camps.

A large number of does and even fawns were killed and left to rot where they were shot.

Hunters left the area in hordes Sunday night but the approaching weekend, with continued good weather, is expected to see the woods again fill to capacity.

National Newspaper Week — next week (Oct. 1-8) — reminds us to take a look at our newspapers and to decide that, maybe, like our government in America and our weather in California, we've got about the best there is. Not perfect — but where do you see anything you'd prefer? There's bad news in the paper, yes, because unpleasant things happen some times and newspapers print the news, whether they like it or not. There's propaganda in the papers, yes, because in the United States we tell people what other people are saying, whether we agree or not, and trust the readers to make up their minds. That's democracy. That's what makes for a free people — free to read everything that's said and done, free to judge for themselves. Thomas Jefferson said, "Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press and that cannot be limited without being lost." That's how we feel about it. National Newspaper Week, in a democratic way, invites readers to look over their newspapers with the slogan of National Newspaper Week thoughtfully in mind, "Your Newspaper Lights the Way of Freedom."

FREEDOM DRIVE CLIMAX FRIDAY WITH DISPLAYS

Climaxing the Crusade for Freedom in Truckee will be a visit by the Freedom Motorcade at 4 p.m. Friday, according to Charles Strohm, county chairman.

The motorcade will demonstrate the newest weapon of the Crusade, the Winds of Freedom, which was inaugurated recently with the release of thousands of balloons carrying messages of hope to the people behind the Iron Curtain. Balloons of both types used will be released in Truckee, carrying messages about the Crusade for Freedom.

The Crusade campaign here has been sponsored by the 20-30 Club under the chairmanship of Jack Ellis, with the active help of the Wyethia Club. Several scrolls have been filled with signatures and around $100 collected in the week-long drive here.

203 Enroll When New School Open For Fall Classes

Teaching Facilities Strained As Work Continues On Building

Two hundred and three students registered at the Tahoe-Truckee High School Monday as classes finally got underway for the fall semester, three weeks behind the other schools of the district.

Only three rooms and the cafeteria are finished enough to permit classes and workmen are continuing on the balance of the building with the shop expected to be ready in the very near future.

Superintendent E. V. O'Rourke said that while the present arrangement is far from satisfactory, both for students and faculty, progress is being made and within a short time the classes can be separated and a routine program begun.

The seventh and eighth grades comprise nearly half the enrollment with 59 in the former class and 40 in the latter. There are 39 registered in the 9th grade, 23 in the 10th, 29 in the 11th and 13 in the 12th, according to a report from the office of the superintendent.

Hot lunches were served for the first time in the cafeteria yesterday.

Bridge Collapse Starts Series Of Major Problems

Survey Crews Due Here To Determine Steps For Relief

It was apparent today that Truckee will be without a substantial bridge over the Truckee River here for a period of six or eight months as the result of the collapse of the span on the Brockway cutoff Sunday night, which sent a large truck and tractor plummeting 30 feet into the water below and caused injuries to the driver, William Andrew Ward, 38.

The mishap, resulting from an effort to rush the cat owned by the Truckee Lumber Company on a truck owned by the Bigelow Logging Company of Hobart Mills to a forest fire, has many complications, both from a standpoint of responsibility and future accessibility.

Bridge Posted
The bridge was owned by the County of Nevada and was posted to limit loads to 8,000 pounds, a fact which caused considerable controversy during recent months when enforcement of the load limit was requested and authorized. That controversy resulted in Crandall Brothers, owners of a saw mill on the south side of the river, building a private bridge a quarter of a mile west of the county's span, where approaches were permitted over land owned by C. A. Tollefson.

The Crandall bridge has been used during emergencies since the collapse Sunday night of the highway span, but because of liability clauses, it has been closed for public use. The same thing applies to the narrow suspended foot bridge owned by Elden Tonini and his Truckee Water System. This latter bridge is used primarily as a support for the water company's pipes and permission to cross has been banned by the owner.

Isolates South Side
This state of affairs leaves the south side businesses and residents more or less isolated from town and offers a distressing, if not dangerous, prospect, since the water line for fire protection south of the river was severed when the bridge collapsed. C. Edmunds, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District, said the directors are studying the possibility of running the pipe under the river but that nothing can be done immediately. The line did not supply water for domestic purposes.

A meeting of parties concerned with the wrecking of the span was held Monday afternoon between forest service officials, state patrolmen, truck owners, county officials including District Attorney Vernon Stoll and others, but no announced conclusion was reached.

Loehr Explains
H. G. Loehr, chairman of the board of supervisors, said he is momentarily helpless to do anything about either replacing the bridge or entering into a contract with Crandalls for the use of their private span. Any action to establish a new route on a county road must have the unanimous vote of the five supervisors, he said, and since three of them, together with Road Commissioner J. F. O'Connor, are attending a convention in Santa Barbara, and at least six days notice must be given for calling a special session, Loehr said he could not possibly have a meeting before the regular meeting date on Monday, October 1.

At that time, he said, the matter would be given special attention and something, no doubt, done to relieve the situation.

Discussion Continues
In the meantime, discussions continue to fix the responsibility and efforts are being made to bring relief. Counties, Loehr said, cannot declare an emergency in this, although, he said, the state, under similar conditions, could do so.

Tollefson charges that tenants on his property object to the dust caused by vehicles using the Crandall bridge. The dust is accumulating on lumber and in mills as well as homes in the area and is causing damages and he urges that if the lateral is used at all it should be repaired and sealed.

Survey Soon
A survey crew was scheduled to arrive yesterday to make preliminary plans for replacing the wrecked structure but under the (Continued on Page 8)

BOARD REFUSES TO TAKE ACTION IN N.T.P.U.D. MATTER

AUBURN—Placer County supervisors have invited mandamus proceeding to compel them to call an election for the disincorporation of the North Tahoe Public Utility District.

Without dissent, they declared no action will be taken on the disincorporation election petition. The action was taken on advice from District Attorney Al Broyer, who said this cleared the way for disincorporation proponents to seek recourse in superior court.

"We most certainly will petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the calling of the election to disincorporate," said H. O. Comstock, spokesman for the petitioners at Monday's hearing before the board of supervisors, the third session of the month on the issue.

"We desire the issue to be settled by a court before we pass on the matter," said William Haines, chairman of the board. "There seems to be no case in California where this matter has been taken to court and it may be carried to a higher court on appeal before we are through."

Broyer ruled the petition is sufficient to justify the call for an election but that the board could refer the matter to court action. He added he thought it poor business to disincorporate but stated this is a personal opinion.

F. L. Sinclair, an attorney who worked on the formation of the district, urged petitioners to elect new directors if they are not satisfied with the present management. Proponents contend that if the disincorporation is effected, the county will operate it. However, supervisors state they are advised by the district attorney they would be compelled to liquidate rather than operate the district if disincorporation is carried.

Serving as NTPUD directors are Joe King, T. D. Sutton and H. E. Brooks. A. E. Abbot is general manager.

My Place in the Sun

by DOUG BARRETT

Heard a lot of speculation on how old was the Truckee River bridge that elevated into the drink Sunday night. Hi Oliver, long time railroader here, was up yesterday and says he remembers the span was rebuilt in "1901 or 1902" when Dan McPheeters was supervisor from over here. Oliver says one of his recent Sierra Suns came with Johnny Moro's paper attached. So after supper they drove over to Johnny's in Sacramento and delivered the home town paper. Carrying coals from Newcastle. The hunting season no sooner opened hereabouts than Mrs. Norma Highfill and her son, Thomas, took off for British Columbia on a hunting trip. CAL-VET BENEFITS ARE EXPANDED UNDER NEW LAWS

Veterans and their dependents in this area who are interested in state farm or home financing, educational assistance, tax exemption and certain other "Cal-Vet" benefits are reminded by the department of veterans affairs of a number of new state laws affecting these programs going into effect on September 22.

Veterans of the Korean conflict are made eligible on the same basis as other veterans for some of the state benefits by certain of the new laws.

The principal changes in and additions to the state laws affecting veterans are as follows:

Korean conflict veterans may now qualify for low-interest "Cal-Vet" farm or home financing and for state civil service preference. They may also be granted the veterans $1,000 property tax exemption upon application next spring.

Higher "Cal-Vet" Loans. The department of veterans affairs may now advance up to $8,500 on a home of $15,000 on a farm, instead of previous maximums of $7,500 and $13,500 respectively. The home may now have an appraised valuation as high as $11,500 and a farm as high as $16,500 and still be eligible; previous valuation ceilings were $10,000 and $15,000 annually.

Educational assistance: The $40 monthly subsistence allowance paid to "Cal-Vet" students may now be raised to $50, to permit the student to buy necessary books and supplies. The over-all maximum expenditure of $1,000 for one veteran has not been changed, however.

Exemption filing by mail: When the next tax exemption filing period opens in March, 1952, veterans who have filed in person at least once may henceforth do so by mail.

There was no change this year in the law governing state educational assistance to widows and children of deceased servicemen and women whose death was due to wartime military service. A special session enactment in 1950 had already extended this benefit to Korean war survivors.

Another new law, "The Veterans Bond Act of 1951," has gone on the statute books but will not be operative unless the voters approve a proposal for issuance of additional California Veterans Bonds. A constitutional amendment to that effect will be included in the 1952 list of ballot propositions. These bonds involve no support from taxes, since the entire cost of the farm and home purchase program is met out of the monthly payments made by the participating veterans.

Information on these and other state benefits for veterans and their dependents is available at the Nevada County Service Office, 310 W. Main Street, Grass Valley.

Truckee, Carson Authority Moves Closer Home

New Lahontan Basin headquarters of the bureau of reclamation are being established in Carson City, E. O. Larson, regional director, announced in Salt Lake City. The bureau's new office in western Nevada, to be known as the Lahontan Basin area office, will facilitate concentration of project activities in the Carson and Truckee River basins.

Public demands for immediate investigation of the potential Washoe Project made it expedient to transfer the investigations heretofore carried on from the bureau's Fallon office to the Reno area where they can be merged with the Washoe project studies, Larson said.

Issuance of a project report on the Washoe project will be given top priority.

ELECTRICAL TIPS FOR THE HOME

If You Plan to Fix Up a Study Area for Your Child . . .

DON'T overlook the importance of proper lighting. Poor illumination in the study area can cause eyestrain and all-around fatigue. A common result: less interest in school work and lower marks.

DO select a well-designed study lamp. To avoid tiring contrasts between light and dark, provide additional light from valances, ceiling or cornices. Be sure to add handy switches near entrances.

Watler Tremaine of the San Francisco Examiner city desk visited his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Tremaine of Soda Springs this past weekend. While here he collected driftwood for his collection. He has a display of polished driftwood at Gumps in San Francisco and recently he won a prize for an exhibit at the Marin Art and Garden Show. Mrs. Tremaine's son-in-law, William Gray of San Francisco, was also here for the weekend, a member of a hunting party which included Dr. L. McIntyre of San Francisco, who was one of the first to get his buck on opening day.

James Sherritt of Soda Springs and his guests, Lynn Beck and Stanley Chiecones of Oakland, got theirs in the Boca Canyon area early Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Sherritt returned Saturday, after a week in Oakland, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Sherritt's brother-in-law, Samuel Hickman.

Among other local people George Zorich and Larry Rowton were also successful on opening day. Reports coming in from deer hunters' camps are that deer are reasonably plentiful but wary this year and hard to get. Paul Viles and Melvin Lewis and their party, all of Grass Valley, who hunt in this vicinity each year, have not been heard from since they packed into a secret destination last Wednesday. Paul Norboe of Soda Springs also has his annual camp set up at Sawmill Lake near Devil's Peak for a party of nine this year, reports five deer taken to date. Col. William Rutherford of Ice Lakes Chalets reported seven of his guests had brought in their deer by Sunday night, all taken in the Ice Lakes area. Dave Ham of Donner Summit Lodge expressed the opinion of numerous local people when he came back empty-handed Saturday night and said, "shucks, he'd wait until the smoke of opening weekend has cleared away and get his crittur a little later."

Mrs. Ernest Tschopp and Mrs. Margo Nordstrom are receiving congratulations as hostesses for a very successful Donner Trail Community Club bingo party Thursday night last in Ski Inn.

Land Company Files Suit Over North Lake Strip

AUBURN—Suit has been started by the Brockway Land Company against Placer County for a strip of land bordering National Park Avenue.

Superior Judge Lowell Sparks disqualified himself and was replaced by Judge W. T. Belieu of Willows.

After a two-day hearing, the case was taken under consideration by the court. Judge Belieu allowed the plaintiff 30 days in which to file a brief. The county must then reply. A decision will be made on the basis of the information presented during this period.

floor Saturday night he cut his usual expert figure in a sharp new military uniform.

Miss Ursula Skinner of San Francisco, secretary to Jack Michelson, British consul general, is greeting friends in Soda Springs this week. She is domiciled at Donner Summit Lodge.

Mrs. Arthur Couillard (Fran Couillard, regular scribe of Summit Scene) of Soda Springs returned Saturday from University of California Hospital in San Francisco where she was treated for a neck injury received in an accident some time ago. Although she is wearing a traction apparatus, she expects to resume her weekly narration of summit news in this column next week.

NEVADA MEN RESCUED AFTER 20 HOURS ADRIFT ON BIG LAKE

by SWANEE

TAHOE CITY—It was about 4:30 p.m. on Sunday that four young students from the University of Nevada stopped at Premier's Sportsman's Port at north Tahoe and rented a speedboat, an 18 foot 125 HP Mercury, for a spin on the lake. All went well on their trip to Emerald Bay and they started on the way back home.

After leaving the bay they decided, according to Bob Vizina, 18, with whom I talked on Monday morning while the quartet was catching up on postponed meals at Conger's, to throttle down the motor but it responded entirely. Repeatedly they tried to start it up again but after the third try they found the battery dead. It was not until 19½ hours later that they were found by a search boat piloted by Fred Kehlet of Meeks Bay.

The boys are John Perry Cobb, 18, Robert Burns Jr., 17, Vizina, all of Elko, and Norman Sigmon, 18, of Halleck, Nev. All attend the university.

Vizina declared: "We were not worried as the boat was dry and we were in no immediate danger we knew, but believe me, we found out how cold it gets on Lake Tahoe around 3:00 in the morning! We were dressed lightly but two of the boys had brought their overcoats, while the other two left theirs in the car. We huddled together in the front of the boat and were not too uncomfortable. All we had to eat were three packages of Life Savers and three packages of gum to chew."

"Our worst discomfort was hunger as we had eaten nothing since around 11 a.m. Sunday. We were glad the lake was calm so there was no danger of swamping."

"At least a half dozen times we could see the lights of search boats approaching us, coming so close we thought sure they'd see us. But they went on and failed even to hear our shouts, even though they turned off their motors every so often to listen. We knew our families would be worried and we knew the gang at the university would be excited about our plight but we knew we would be found sooner or later and just made the best of a bad situation."

The one thing that sounds odd about the adventure is that with four men along, not one had a match in his pocket. They had no flashlight and there were no flares in the boat. One important point that the Coast Guard is trying to impress on boat owners at the lake is that every boat should be equipped with flares and first aid kits. Life preservers they had but were glad they didn't need.

MANY NICE BUCKS ARE TAKEN IN TAHOE DISTRICT

TAHOE CITY—Since the season opened last Saturday, some nice bucks have come out of the Tahoe area. Mrs. Sterling Ralphs of Big Chief got a three pointer on Saturday. Dick Carnell bagged a forked horn. Al Henry got a 125 pound four pointer up Squaw Valley. Don Gallagher of Oakland got a three pointer, weight 140 pounds, up Ward Creek.

No exceptionally large deer have been reported shot, but then, due to a large number of hunters and validating officers being busy in the woods with patrol and fire fighting duties, information is hard to get on details this year.

Many hunters went out to the old familiar grounds but report the deer seem to be remaining high up and not in their usual haunts. One party saw 18 deer in one day, with only two of them bucks—and they missed those. Many of the bucks seen in this area are small.

155 Polio Cases in State For Past Week

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)—Polio cases reported in California last week totaled 155, the state department of public health reported Monday. Los Angeles led with 61 cases with others distributed among nine other counties.

St. Paul, Minn., is the world's largest publisher of law books.

Company was notified around 8:45 p.m., after an employee of Premier's went out alone to look for the boat when it failed to return. Immediately the patrol boats were summoned to Tahoe City and my 10:45 six boats had assembled at the pier and had their instructions. A planned pattern was followed in the search with L. J. Putnam's boat from Carnelian Bay serving as the base boat with constant contact being kept by ship to shore radio with the Tahoe Boat Company's station for any late word which might come in. Green flare signals kept the boats in contact with each other in carrying out the search pattern. Lucius Davis of San Francisco a visitor at the lake, was among those offering his boat's services.

Commander Fred Webber of South Tahoe sent out patrol boats at that end of the lake as well as foot and horse patrols to scour the shoreline Monday morning. The Coast Guard also sent a plane to aid in the search on Monday morning and between 11 and 11:30 a.m. on Monday the lost boat was found by Kehlet at a spot approximately five miles out in the lake opposite the entrance to Meeks Bay.

In spite of today's inflated prices, your telephone remains one of the lowest-cost items in the family budget.

FRIENDLY HELPER TO FAMILY BUDGETS

Your telephone dollars go farther today than they did in 1940

1. The way prices have skyrocketed on most items you buy to run your home, you might expect your telephone rates would have gone along, too. For, just as your costs have soared on things your family needs, so have our costs of providing telephone service—wages, taxes and materials. Yet, despite this, the increases in telephone rates do not even cover our increased wage costs alone.

2. You buy telephone service for just one thing—to have a quick way to keep in touch with other people. Today, in most places, you can call about twice as many telephones without a toll charge as in 1940. When you compare just that one great increase in value with the small increase in telephone rates, you can see you pay much less for service today—in terms of what the telephone can do for you.

3. You have more telephone service—and better telephone service—today than ever. And the value you're getting for your telephone dollar is due, basically, to just one thing. Over the years your telephone system has had the financial strength to attract the investors' money needed to build equipment and develop telephone service to a highly efficient level. And with a financially strong system, the telephone can continue to grow in value and usefulness to you and all the nation.

RUSTAD IS JUDGING AT SKI JUMP MEET FOR FAIR IN L. A.

TAHOE CITY— Kjell Rustad of Gralibakken, one of the five members of the NSA jumping committee, left again Monday for the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona. He attended last week talking with him Darryl Stark, 12 one of the most promising of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's junior jumpers, who gave an exhibition for the fairgoers during his visit south. He will be entered in the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's coming National Junior championship tournament to be held at Olympic Hill next March 15 and 16. This event, incidentally, was announced over the fair's loudspeaker frequently during the fair.

Rustad was chief judge of events during his attendance in the south and will again resume his duties upon his return south. Members of America's Olympic team who were present for competition included Art Devlin, Keith Wegeman, Joe Perrault, Willis Wilson, John Bednarz, Clarence Hill, Wilbert Ras mussen and Dave Freeman. The ninth member of the team, Ralph Bietilo, did not attend the fair, due to some emergency.

Rustad declared he has never seen the likes of the Pomona man, made jumping hill which towers 225 feet into the air and is supplied day and night with artificial snow produced by six ice machines. During the day a heat wave visited the town with the mercury soaring to 95 degrees but during the evenings the snow remained more firmly on the ground. The boys practiced at 4:30 each afternoon with competition starting at 10:30 each night. Between 40,000 and 50,000 spectators were on hand to watch daily. Rustad will remain at Pomona until the fair until its close on September 30.

Two Lake Forest Boys Share Birthday Fete

TAHOE CITY— A unique situation arose when two Lake Forest youngsters celebrated birthdays on the same date, September 22.

They are Jimmie Huega, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Huega, and Douglas Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson. Both wanted a birthday party and both enjoy the same circle of friends. The problem was satisfactorily solved when Mrs. Huega hosted a gala party for both, with the guests wishing each happy days. Party games with prizes were played and the afternoon climaxed with the serving of a beautiful lighted cake and ice cream, candy, and gum. Those attended included Patty and Bonnie Finger, Sandra and Stephanie Snyder, Carol Wilson, Gene Finger, Basil and William Kehoe, Ronald and Richard Brown, Martin Record, Neal Cunningham and sister.

Mrs. N. J. Lindenfeld has returned to Los Angeles following several weeks at Meeks Bay.

TAXES AT TAHOE NOT AS HIGH AS OTHER AREAS

AUBURN— Tax rates in eastern Placer County for 1951-52 will range from $5.61 to $3.97 per $100 assessed valuation, according to a table compiled by Auditor Wm. Stephens.

Top rate in this group will be paid by taxpayers in the Kings Beach area including the Tahoe-Truckee school, Tahoe Forest hospital and North Tahoe Public Utility Districts. The $5.61 rate there will include the $1.99 basic county rate, $2.07 for schools and library, $1.42 for PUD and 13 cents for hospital.

Several districts in the county show a higher tax rate, led by a Roseville district with $6.35, one in Placer Hills for $5.85, one in Forest Hills for $5.81 and another in Roseville for $5.67.

Other total rates in the area are: Tahoe Lake and Hospital, $4.10; Tahoe Lake, fire, hospital, PUD, $4.72; Kings Beach, hospital, PUD, $4.74; Donner Trail, hospital, $4.24; Donner Trail, no hospital, PUD, $4.61; Tahoe Lake, no hospital or PUD, $3.97; Donner Trail, no hospital or PUD, $4.11; Kings Beach, no hospital or PUD, $4.06.

Judge Snell Upholds $200,000 Verdict

NEVADA CITY— The $200,000 jury verdict in the case of Robert Allen will stand, so far as Superior Judge James Snell is concerned.

Those ordered to pay the $200,000 are Wells Cargo Inc. and one of its drivers, Kenneth Leon Eoff of Reno. Allen's injuries were received in a collision on the east slope of Donner Summit last October.

The law provides that if no action is taken by the court within 60 days after the judgment is entered, it stands. The judgment in this case was filed July 14 and the 60 days had elapsed.

The first "East-West" football game, Stanford vs. University of Chicago, was played in San Francisco December 25, 1894.

TAHOE WOMEN'S CLUB SPONSORS RELIEF PROJECT FOR KOREA

TAHOE CITY— Mrs. Louise Geier of the Women's Club of Tahoe is chairman of the American Relief for Korea clothing drive in the Tahoe City area. The drive is being sponsored by the club and those having no clothing to donate may give money instead. This will be spent for the purchase of CARE packages to send to the needy Koreans. Large boxes will be placed in the business houses in Tahoe City in which to deposit any surplus usable clothing, which does not need to be mended or ironed but must be clean. Those wishing to give money may leave it for Mrs. Geier at the stores or mail it directly to her at Tahoe City post office.

Mrs. Geier volunteered her services at the regular meeting of the women's club at Donaldson's Coffee Shop on last Thursday. At that time, Mrs. Donaldson, who is the club president, hosted a luncheon for members at noon, which was followed by a brief business meeting and afternoon of cards.

Mrs. Marguerite Webb, chairman in charge of Tri-County International Relations and Bible Literature chairman, read a letter which she composed to send to all the Tri-County Clubs urging members to take part in the great drive for stable world peace.

Two old-time members were welcomed back into the club, Mrs. Ida Simmonds and Mrs. Anne Anderson. The latter was instrumental in the passage of a resolution instructing the club's secretary to write a letter to the Placer County librarian at Auburn requesting a raise in salary for the librarian of Tahoe City's branch, Mrs. Ruth Hoffman.

Recently Carl Becholdt Sr. erected a fine new library on the Tahoe City commons in memory of his late wife, Julia. Beginning the first of September, Mrs. Hoffman has opened the library every day from 1 to 4 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays with evening hours from 7 to 9 on Wednesdays. Heretofore, the three day a week opening paid the librarian $20 monthly. Since the increased hours, her salary has risen to $35. Becholdt and others are aroused by the small fee paid the librarian, who also serves as janitor in the new building.

Mrs. Donaldson, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Painter, will supervise and cook the Bond Dinner, being planned by the Women's Club of Tahoe in Tahoe community hall October 20-between 6 and 8 p.m. It will be a baked ham dinner and will be open to the public. Money from the affair will be invested in bonds for the women's club. Mrs. Gladys Anderson is in charge of tickets for the dinner.

Next meeting will be on Thursday, October 4, in Tahoe community center with Mrs. Pearl Snyder and Mrs. Dorothy Painter as co-hostesses.

Tahoe City Crash Suit Settled Out of Court

AUBURN— After working for two hours on the selection of a jury, attorneys informed Judge Thomas Maul of El Dorado County, sitting here, the $100,000 damage action of Mrs. Ernestine Charles against Donald W. Atcheson has been compromised for an unannounced sum. Judge Maul dismissed the jurors.

Mrs. Charles sued for injuries she said she suffered in an automobile accident near Tahoe City on May 22, 1949.

State Reduces Tolls on South Bay Spans

SAN FRANCISCO— Motorists, accustomed to reaching the San Francisco peninsula via the San Mateo-Hayward and Dumbarton bridges across the south end of the bay now pay 35 cents instead of 50 cents per crossing. The new rate became effective this month when state agencies took title to the two spans.

The first London "coffee house" was opened in 1652.

THESE folks are enjoying something that's being pioneered by Buick.

It's freedom from the blinding glare of bright summer sunlight.

It's freedom from hot laps—caused by the sun's rays beating down through the broad expanse of windshield.

These freedoms trace to a new feature you may have noticed in '51 Buicks—a new kind of glass with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, in every glass area of the car, front, side and back.

Buick engineers tell us that this "Buick first" reduces glare 18% over conventional glass—cuts sun heat as much as 45%—and Buick engineers are very conservative fellows.

This glare-and-heat-reducing Easy-eye glass is factory-installed at moderate extra charge. It gives you a built-in transparent "sun visor" right in the windshield—and it also dulls the dazzle of oncoming headlights at night.

As we've said, this is something Buick owners were the first to enjoy. It takes its place with such exclusives as the valve-in-head Fireball Engine—coil springs on all four wheels—the firm power linkage of torque-tube drive—and the magic of Dynaflo.*

As we've also said—rather modestly—"Smart buy's Buick."

Come in soon and find out what an understatement that really is.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

PHONE TAHOE CITY 39W
Tahoe City, Sept. 24

Dear Tahoeites:
Once again visitors to our fair shores have undergone a painful and dangerous experience which very easily could have proven tragic. The story of the four University of Nevada students who were adrift on the lake all night Sunday spending 19 1/2 hours in an open boat, appears elsewhere in the Sun's columns, but a word of advice is stressed by the U. S. Coast Guard to all who own and use boats on the lake. For months now they have been urging all craft especially those used for rental carry first aid equipment and flares. Had a single flare been available these men might not have been forced to undergo the worry and discomfort of a night on the water. Says Fred Main, vice commander of Coast Guard Flotilla 61, "Unless these boat owners do something on a voluntary basis, I'm afraid they are going to face stiff penalties next year for evasion of this important requirement. If recommendations of the Coast Guard are acted upon—and we have every assurance they will be—many of these emergencies could be avoided if these boats were only properly equipped."

Another near tragedy was avoided on Wednesday afternoon in the Lake Forest area when two little pre-school age children, identified only as the Neal children, visiting with their folks with friends in Lake Forest, narrowly escaped possible drowning when the raft on which they were playing drifted away from the pier, carrying them out into deep water. The youngsters in some manner untied the raft, which is used by local residents who use the beach for sunbathing, and started pushing the raft away from the wharf with the wooden paddles which they found. Suddenly they discovered they were drifting out into the lake and became frightened. Their screams for help were heard for some blocks. Mrs. Eunice Henriksen, who lives nearby, heard the cries and phoned Mrs. Ivan Wilson, asking if her children, Carol and Douglas, could help. The youngsters jumped on their bike, and made for the shoreline where Carol jumped in and began swimming to the raft, now some 100 yards from shore. Just turned 15 in September, she received her life saving certificate through Red Cross instruction at Tahoe last year and found the knowledge gained therefrom extremely useful. She made the raft in good shape after her longest swim to date and managed to calm the children who were almost hysterical. She then started paddling back to shore with the long pole and was about one third of the way in when Fred Main arrived on the scene in his speedboat and aided in bringing the raft in the rest of the distance. Since this happened the old raft has been removed to prevent further danger to children and a new raft has been constructed by Richard and Ronald Brown who anchored it out in the lake some distance from the wharf, where it will be impossible for very young children to reach it. And this is just another excellent argument in favor of the annual Red Cross swimming lessons which Lake Tahoe children have been fortunate in receiving for many years past. Remember this when it comes time to donate toward this worthy organization—the Red Cross.

Little Danelle Pomini, daughter of the Robert Pomins of Tahoe City, has been down to Sacramento for those tests which were to be made and her parents were greatly relieved to learn that she does not have rheumatic fever. Her recent illness is being caused by an allergy to medicines she has been required to take during the past few years. With rest and care she will soon be as good as new again.

Mrs. Gerda Kvistberg observed another birthday, September 18. She and her husband are vacationing at the James Easton home in Pineland while their own new summer home is being erected in Tahoe Park. They expect to have it weatherproofed before the snow flies.

Had a real thrill on Saturday evening when I was invited to partake of a nice, thick, juicy elk steak from the 500 pounder A. E. Sanford killed on a recent hunting trip to Wyoming. Son Jimmie was along too and we both voted elk steaks tops, especially as cooked by Mrs. Sanford. Also met Charles Strothoff of San Francisco, the architect who designed beautiful and unique Town and Country Lodge for the Sanfords. Strothoff and his wife recently returned from a three weeks visit to South America. The Sanfords' beautiful home here and 15 deluxe rental units are the third he has designed for them, having been responsible for their peninsula homes, as well. Other guests at the Sanfords last week were Mr. and Mrs. Al Cordenas of San Francisco.

Dropped in on Saturday night for a visit with the Bob Dennis family of Kings Beach and found weekend company visiting. They were Mr. and Mrs. Connie Greshim, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Greshim and Joe Greshim, all of Saratoga. While the women kept the home fires burning, the men went for a deer hunt in the Dog Valley district. Haven't learned yet if their efforts were successful or not.

Had an unexpected and pleasant visit with Henry Worden, my old friend and neighbor of the Sunny-side district who owned and operated for many years, with his wife, Elizabeth, Worden's Ward Creek Cabins. He reported Mrs. Worden and her sister, Agnes Walman of Oakland, enjoying a week's vacation as guests of Mrs. William Mayhew, who with her late husband purchased the resort from them. The Wordens have resided for some years now in San Lorenzo where Worden and his son, James, are now in the building contracting business. Their daughter, Helen, who is now Mrs. Eddie Doolittle of Cisco Grove, now has three children, Norman, Douglas and Darlene. About a month and a half ago her husband suffered the loss of one eye when a piece of the steel wedge which he was using to fell trees struck him in the eye. He was rushed to a Sacramento hospital and 16 stitches were required to close the wound. Jim Worden, his wife and two children, Bobbie and Sandra, reside in San Lorenzo and at present is condoling. Worden brought me up to date on the Prusso boys, too, all raised at Tahoe where their dad and mom, the Everett Prussos, built and established popular Forest Inn on Ward Creek. Sherwood now resides with his wife and three children near Los Angeles and is employed as a cabinet maker. Ray lives with his wife and two children at San Lorenzo and is a carpenter. Don is in the air force and was last reported back in Georgia. Worden, son James and Sherwood are enjoying a hunt at the lake right now but must return to their jobs as soon as they get their bucks. Don Gallagher, one of their party, got his buck up Ward Creek Sunday, a three pointer weighing 140 pounds.

First religious services were held in Tahoe community hall last Sunday at 4:30 p.m. with approximately a dozen persons attending. Rev. Max Christensen of Nevada City delivered the sermon and will be in attendance for regular services in the community hall every first and third Sunday each month through the winter. All residents are invited to attend as services are non-sectarian. At the next meeting on the first Sunday in October, Oct. 7, a special meeting will be held following the devotions for parents of children who are interested in having Sunday school every Sunday. This will be arranged if enough interest is shown.

Clarence Beavers of Tahoe Park Forest Service station is out again tonight with a crew of 60 fighting the fire which rages on the Truckee-Brockway cutoff. The fire began from a camper's fire on Sunday afternoon around 4:30 p.m. and although a line was thrown around it yesterday, during the day the wind rose and the fire jumped out of control once again. Word tonight is that the road is closed to traffic as one of the bridges was destroyed when a large truck carrying a heavy piece of equipment crashed through. Starting on east Martis Creek the fire has burned over between 20 and 30 acres and is still spreading at this writing. What a pity careless hunters cannot take a few moments to make sure their campfires are out. The few who fail to heed the rules, bring criticism upon the many who are cautious. We who love our stately forests find such negligence unforgivable.

Will ring off for the week with the plea for special attention to the discarding of cigarettes and the like and your campfires. One wee match may lay waste our beautiful mountain wonderland; ruin it beyond recall for uncounted years ahead.

Good health, good luck and happy landings to one and all. As ever, Swane.

SANITATION NO. 1 PROBLEM OF VACATION AREAS

by HENRY C. MACARTHUR

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— California's priceless heritage as the nation's number one vacation land may some of these days suffer a serious set-back if conclusions reached from a report of the state department of public health prove to be of any value.

For the department reports that with more and more people flocking to this state's recreational areas, critical sanitation problems have developed, which it feels must be solved as rapidly as possible by the joint efforts of the federal, state and local interests if the areas are to be utilized to the fullest extent.

Officials cite the closing this season of U. S. Forest Service camps around Bass Lake, where the Madera County health officer reported that "eight times as many campers swarmed into the areas than could be accommodated by existing sanitary facilities."

While many other popular areas were not closed, reports indicate that facilities in almost all prominent vacation spots this year were over-taxed. Campers who returned from Yosemite Valley reported all of the campsites in this area, one of the most popular in the state, were full and that on some days cars were lined up for more than a mile waiting to get into the valley. Lake Tahoe resort people reported a heavy year as did other less known but nonetheless popular vacation spots throughout the state. The heavy visitation to the state's mountains and beaches however, does not mean there was any immediate danger to public health, but it is an indication of even heavier travel to the vacation spots in future years, resulting from the continuing growth in population and the desire of the public to "get away from it all" for a few weeks for a change of scenery and environment.

The department is concerned principally with the future and as a result has assigned a staff member of its bureau of sanitary engineering to work with forest rangers in making sanitation improvements where funds will permit.

It also plans further conferences to bring what it terms emergency situations to the attention of public officials and to lay out a program of orderly planning, new construction and good maintenance of sanitation in all critical areas.

The mere fact that the problem has been brought to light may be sufficient to waken the citizenry to its importance. For if the tourist industry has reached its peak because of a lack of sanitary facilities, even in one small area, there can be little to look forward to in the way of expansion of what is one of the state's most lucrative businesses.

BRIDGE COLLAPSE

best of conditions, nothing of a permanent nature can be accomplished within months, Loehr declared. Rights of way and methods of securing the necessary finances take time, he said, but in the meantime he will do everything in his power to provide a crossing.

Snapped at Night

The bridge snapped and the entire center section fell 30 feet into the river at 11:35 Sunday night. The truck and trailer, with a big D-8 cat, had just reached the center of the span when the section gave way. The driver managed to walk to the south shore and was later treated for injuries by Dr. L. D. Nelson. He went to a Reno hospital for further examination.

Armati Witness

A witness to the crash was Andrea Armati, who had just started across the bridge to his home when the load approached. He stepped back to wait for it to cross and later warned approaching motorists of the danger ahead. He described the crash as similar to a bombing, as a gas tank exploded and an electric pole snapped, causing a short circuit and plunging the town into darkness for 30 minutes, simultaneously with the collapse of the bridge.

40 Years Old

The old bridge was built more than 40 years ago, according to old timers, and was constructed for horse-drawn vehicles, single laded and not adequate for present-day traffic and loads, although it has been in heavy demand by local and through traffic for many years.

State Patrolman Roy Stallard investigated the crash and Captain George Peterkin arrived to continue study of the case.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Because of clauses in our insurance we have closed our private bridge across the Truckee River to all traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, until further notice. We regret the necessity of this action but it is something beyond our control.
